

McLEOD CENTERS
FOR WELLBEING

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

McLeod Centers for Wellbeing Opens New Monroe Location to Expand Substance Use Disorder Treatment Services

MONROE, N.C. — March 6, 2026 — McLeod Centers for Wellbeing will host a grand opening celebration for its new Monroe location on Friday, March 6, 2026, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., inviting community members, local leaders, health care professionals and media to tour the facility and learn more about its services. The event will be held at McLeod Centers for Wellbeing | Monroe, 1410 E. Franklin St., Monroe, NC 28110.

The event will feature a community celebration, remarks from organizational leaders and community partners, guided tours of the center and light refreshments. Guests will learn how McLeod Centers' range of services, including medication for opioid use disorder, counseling and recovery support, that help clients build safer, healthier and more stable lives.

"With the opening of our Monroe location, McLeod Centers for Wellbeing is strengthening our commitment to meet people where they are and provide effective, person-centered care close to home," said Chrisine Zazzaro, Chief Executive Officer. "We know that timely, accessible treatment can change the trajectory of a person's life, and we are honored to partner with Union County and the surrounding communities in this work."

For decades, McLeod Centers for Wellbeing, a nonprofit with eight locations across the state, has served North Carolinians through outpatient and residential programs focused on recovery from substance use disorders. The organization's multidisciplinary teams provide individualized care in a respectful, nonjudgmental environment designed to support long-term wellbeing.

The Monroe opening continues McLeod Centers' mission to build a foundation of healing and hope while restoring lives, reuniting families and strengthening communities by ensuring that high-quality substance use disorder treatment is available where it is needed most.

Press Contact:

For more information about the grand opening or McLeod Centers for Wellbeing's services, contact

Taryn Chase, Marketing/Communications Specialist
704.412.1540 or Taryn.Hofert@mcleodcenters.org

Visit us at www.McleodCenters.org

About | McLeod Centers for Wellbeing is a Charlotte-based nonprofit organization working since 1969 to build a foundation of healing and hope based on equity, education, and evidence-based practice for all communities through serving adolescents and adults with substance use disorder. The organization serves over 5,000 patients annually through medication assisted treatment, outpatient services, residential treatment, case management, and education across eight locations in Piedmont and Western North Carolina.